International Military Staff

Emerging Infectious Disease Congress
March 25th 2015

Anne Marie Fenger
(LTC, DNK AR, Logistic and Resources Division, Medical Branch)
(fenger.am@hq.nato.int)
IMS medical branch

- we try to see the Medical aspects of non medical papers and subjects

and

- to explain the implications medical issues can have on military subjects
What can NATO add

- DECLASSIFY DOCTRINE
  - share as many document as possible

- SMART DEFENSE:
  - FRAMEWORK nation’s concept:
  - Pooling and sharing
  - Education, Training, Exercise and Evaluation (ETEE)

And on the long term.
  - Capability development
What can NATO add (2)

- Coordination
- Cooperation
- Integration
Infectious Disease and NATO

• Either as a force protection issue
  Or
• as a BIO treat in for example a weapon of mass destruction
Humanitarian Crisis
The Future

Initial Findings:
Themes, Trends and Drivers

Drivers:
- Interconnected world
- Technology as an accelerator

Trends:
- Globalization
- Urbanization
- Social stress
- Transnational crime
- Pandemic
- Climate
- Natural disasters
- Displaced persons
- Border disputes
- Economic malaise
- Disasters (natural/human made)

Themes:
- Political Arena
- Physical Domain
- Human Domain
- Resources and Economy

Drivers:
- Shift of global power
- Lack of shared threat perception
- Shifting alliances
- Inequality gaps
- Extremism
- Ideological movements
- Interconnected world
- Persistent conflict among people
- Population trends
- Globalization of military power
- Globalization of financial resources
- Disasters (natural/human made)

NATO UNCLASSIFIED

25th March 2015
Questions?